Resource & Talent Development Program at California Polytechnic State University San Luis Obispo

Exclusive Networks operates this resource and talent development program in the Technology Park at California Polytechnic State University San Luis Obispo to help nurture the next generation of cybersecurity talent and address the skills gap. Cal Poly's "Learn-by-Doing" philosophy ensures that students gain knowledge and skills through hands-on experiences, preparing them to tackle real-world challenges. This approach enables graduates to make an immediate impact in their careers. By partnering with the university, Exclusive Networks provides students the chance to work alongside cybersecurity professionals, preparing them for successful careers in the field upon graduation.
